

Core Knowledge Re-Teach – Characterisation	Key Vocabulary (define the following)
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Something the author tells us directly about a character e.g their age, appearance, job, address, likes, dislikes etc. _____ 2. Something which we have to infer about a character through their actions, their dialogue (their idiolects), what others say about them, their clothing etc _____ 3. Doyle’s use of _____ for the King of Bohemia’s clothing characterise him as rich and powerful. 4. Through the King of Bohemia’s _____, Doyle characterises him as self-important and entitled. 	Omission Idiosyncratic Symbolism
Explore language: “by binding you both to absolute secrecy for two years.....it is of such weight it may have an influence upon European history.”	Explore language: “I told you that I would call.....You may address me as the Count Von Kramm’
Rewrite: <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>	