

Homework Grid | The Girl of Ink and Stars | Year 7 | Summer 2

Week 1		Week 2		Week 3
Banished	When a person is punished by being sent away from a place and not permitted to return.	Redemption	Being saved or saving someone from evil, sin or suffering.	Subjugated	Being controlled or dominated.
Cartographer	A person who draws or creates maps.	Ruthless	Hard and cruel; determined to get what you want and not caring if you hurt other people.	Class	A system of ordering society whereby people are divided into sets based on perceived social or economic status
Coercive	Using force or the threat of force.	Labyrinth	A serious of confusing passages or paths which can be difficult to navigate.	Governor	The head of a town, region, or institution.
Colonialism	When one country acquires full or partial control over another country, occupying it with settlers, and exploiting it and the local people for wealth and resources.	Myth	A traditional story, often associated with a particular place or group of people, usually featuring supernatural or fantastical elements.	Callous	not caring about other people's feelings, pain or problems.
Week 4		Week 5		Week 6
Resourceful	able to deal with situations by finding ways to succeed.	Direct Address	When the speaker/writer speaks directly to the audience	Rhetorical Question	A question which is asked to make a point rather than to get an answer.
Egret	heron with mainly white plumage, having long plumes in the breeding season.	Alliteration	The repetition of the same consonant sound	Repetition	Where a word or phrase is used multiple times for effect
Authoritative	able to deal with situations by finding ways to succeed.	Facts	Statements which can be proven to be true	Emotive Language	Word choice which is used to evoke emotion in the reader
Gender	The social and cultural differences associated with being male and female.	Opinion	A view or judgement formed about something, not necessarily based on fact or knowledge	Statistic	Numerical facts or data used to support a point